Inspired by the sacred number from the Hindu and Buddhist tradition, this book is a collection of 108 blessings and passages that touch every facet of our human experience. Each blessing is unique, but together they work as an evolutionary bridge that will lead us to our higher self. When we bless someone with pure intent, the sacred within us becomes an alchemical force to transform and shape lives. The blessings in this book offer wisdom to awaken the sacred in you so you can heal, heal others and empower your path with joy, passion and purpose. Like the mantras accompanying 108 beads of the Japa Mala, each blessing is meant to be felt, heard and absorbed. Hold one each day. After 108 days, begin again and when you are ready, pass the book on like a blessing. Edited by Pete Azarnoosh. Cover Art by Kanchan Chander.

It's time to lay down your diet shakes, cleanses and detoxes. Just lay them right on down at the foot of the cross. Whatever you're counting - calories, grams, points, steps, macros - you have our permission to stop, quit striving, rest, and re-evaluate. This little devotional was written by a team of folks - married, single, stay-at-home parents, working parents, health care professionals, but most importantly children of God. We all care about the same thing - helping others heal in their relationship with food and fully embrace their unique bodies, which were meant to be different shapes and sizes. We believe that every body is a good body! Our hope for you is that through this daily devotional, you will find the courage to stop stressing about food and start putting it back into its place as just one minor piece of your life. We pray for complete healing from struggles surrounding food, exercise and body image. Jesus came so that peace and love would reign over war and hate. As a culture, we are at war with our bodies. We declare body peace to reign over body hate.
