Real Lives, Real Listening

Bestselling author Alain de Botton considers how our private homes and public edifices influence how we feel, and how we could build dwellings in which we would stand a better chance of happiness. In this witty, erudite look at how we shape, and are shaped by, our surroundings, Alain de Botton applies Stendhal's motto that "Beauty is the promise of happiness" to the spaces we inhabit daily. Why should we pay attention to what architecture has to say to us? de Botton asks provocatively. With his trademark lucidity and humour, de

Read Free C1 Speaking Skills Simple Tools For Advanced English

Botton traces how human needs and desires have been served by styles of architecture, from stately Classical to minimalist Modern, arguing that the stylistic choices of a society can represent both its cherished ideals and the qualities it desperately lacks. On an individual level, de Botton has deep sympathy for our need to see our selves reflected in our surroundings; he demonstrates with great wisdom how buildings — just like friends — can serve as guardians of our identity. Worrying about the shape of our sofa or the colour of our walls might seem self-indulgent, but de Botton considers the hopes and fears we have for our homes at a new level of depth and insight. When shopping for furniture or remodelling the kitchen, we don't just consider functionality but also the major questions of aesthetics and the philosophy of art: What is beauty? Can beautiful surroundings make us good? Can beauty bring happiness? The buildings we find beautiful, de Botton concludes, are those that represent our ideas of a meaningful life. The Architecture of Happiness marks a return to what Alain does best — taking on a subject whose allure is at once tantalizing and a little forbidding and offering to readers a completely beguiling and original exploration of the subject. As he did with Proust, philosophy, and travel, now he does with architecture.

A three-level English Course book for teenage and young adult learners. 'English for Everyone' covers all the things taught at A1 to C1 (CEF) level. This book is designed to enable its readers to become skilled at Spoken English. Whenever we talk about learning English, we start talking about tenses, grammar and vocabulary. Memorize tenses, master grammar and mug up some commonly used words and you will master English. But despite learning tenses, grammar and vocabulary, people are unable to converse in English effectively. Why? Because this is not the right method to learn English. Let me ask you something. If you are an Indian, you can probably speak Hindi well. Have you ever learnt Hindi tenses? Have you ever learnt Hindi grammar rules or Hindi word meanings? I believe that your answer is 'No' with a capital 'N'. Then how do you speak Hindi or your mother tongue fluently? Think hard. Nobody talks about learning tenses or grammar when it comes to speaking Hindi proficiently. But everyone talks about learning tenses, understanding grammar and strengthening vocabulary when it comes to speaking English fluently. English or any language, for that matter, is learnt by using it in practice. Let me ask you how any child learns his mother tongue. How an Englishman's baby learns English and an Indian's child learns Hindi. When a child is born, the environment around him teaches the language. He hears the language in the background and that serves as a kind of practice for him. Listening to the language repeatedly enables the child to start understanding it. He tries speaking and becomes fluent in the language in a few months. We will apply a similar method to learn English in this course. The lessons in this book will help you to practice the English language in everyday situations. We will not focus on theory. We will focus on practice. We understand that there are many people out there who know the theories of grammar but are very poor at spoken English. This is because knowing concepts is not equal to applying concepts. In this course, every lesson will help you to apply and not simply know concepts. This is how language is learnt. This is how you will learn English too. All the best!
