Pete Greig is a worldwide authority and the face of a generation when it comes to prayer. One of the founders of the 24-7 prayer movement, he has seen, experienced, and chronicled amazing works of God in the world. While you might imagine him to be puffed up, Pete Greig is entirely the opposite. He is enchanting, down-to-earth, friendly, and most of all, very normal—and yet he tells preposterous tales about prayer (and they're true). He is basically a regular dude who loves to talk with God. How to Pray is written to evoke a passion for prayer in everyone—the committed follower of Jesus as well as the skeptic and the scared. The enormous blessing of How to Pray is that it is accessible, full of surprising stories of answered prayer, and tremendously engaging. The basic idea is that prayer is a conversation between you and God. Pete Greig demystifies and reenchants prayer, helping you to find prayer achievable and enjoyable, and ultimately life-giving and life-changing. How to Pray is designed to be used together with The Prayer Course (a free video curriculum associated with the Alpha course), making it useful for personal and group or church-wide reading.

Learning to Pray

Prayer is an important tool in the life of every believer. It is a medium through which we communicate with God. Unfortunately, many modern Christians find it pretty hard to say a simple prayer. The reason is not due to lack of time or space to pray but surprisingly! due to lack of the right words to use in prayer. "And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive" Mathew 21:22. This book shows us the various steps in prayer, why some prayers were never answered and how to get "YES" answered to our

Weariness. Wonder. Joy. Longing. Anger. These are the feelings of the Psalms: honest expressions of pain and joy penned by real people in the midst of real life circumstances. Though they were written centuries ago, the Psalms still resonate deeply with us today, giving voice to our thoughts and longings: "Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD." (Psalm 130:1) "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble." (Psalm 46:1) "As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, O God." (Psalm 84:2) In Learning to Pray Through the Psalms, James W. Sire teaches us to take our appreciation for this rich book of Scripture a step further. Choosing ten specific psalms, Sire offers background information that helps us read each one with deeper insight and then lays out a meditative, step-by-step approach to using the psalmists' words as a guide for our own personal conversation with God. A group study is also included in each chapter, along with a guide for praying through the psalm in community. The Lord loves when his people pray. And his Word is a powerful tool for framing honest, intimate prayers. Sire's innovative

This book is not only a companion for the "journey", but also provides a meeting place for children to encounter God's presence that will transform their hearts and lives.

"You will only make this journey once. What kind of journey will it be?" Is your love for other believers growing? Is your faith in God a topic of conversation among other believers? Is God's work your work? If you can answer "yes" to these questions, you are growing spiritually. If you answered "no", your road to spiritual growth may be filled with obstacles. Just as our physical lives need nourishment, our spiritual lives need the nourishment provided by Scripture and our fellow believers. Living as a Christian explores ways to become aware of God's presence and direction in every step on our journey of life. Dangerous Prayers

7days Without Prayer Makes One Weak

Tapping is an activity that many of us engage in everyday without even thinking about what we are doing. We drum our fingers on a desk or table while we wait for something to happen. We tap our forehead while we are figuring out a problem. We stroke our chin or rub our head as we contemplate the issues of the day. Each of these acts is our body's clumsy way of attending to a need for peace or resolution. Tapping prayer is a spiritual practice that intentionally focuses our attention on the rhythmic movement of our finger tips. It directs the energy of God's healing onto specific points on our body that through the practice of acupuncture and reiki, have shown to be conduits of healing. Tapping prayer is the most exciting addition to my spiritual tool belt in 25 years of ministry. It's fun and effective and easy to administer alone, one on one, or in a group. It is very flexible and did I mention, effective? Tapping prayer is effective in bringing individuals into a one on one relationship with God that creates peace, healing, and a desire to share those gifts with other individuals, communities, and Creation. Tapping prayer is an integration of sacred wisdom from the East and West. It is a spiritual practice that blends a knowledge of the Spirit's movement through our body with an understanding of meridian tapping based on the Emotional Freedom Technique created by Gary Craig. Tapping prayer brings balance and peace to individuals who are experiencing spiritual distress. By gently tapping on identified points of entry for the Holy which correspond to meridian end points in acupuncture, while praying for God to attend to a particular pain, we focus God's intention to heal and in most cases actually experience a peace which is not of our own doing. By acknowledging pain instead of wishing for relief, we recognize God's interest to heal us and indeed, God heals us. This technique can be used for individuals who are seeking peace from a wide variety of issues ranging from: trauma such as a car accident, an abusive parent, a friend killed in battle, a sudden illness, a job loss, a fire, a damaged relationship. Tapping prayer can also facilitate forgiveness and/or letting go. Tapping prayer is effective in praying for others (surrogate prayer tapping focused on an individual who is not present to the prayer tapping), for events (9/11, Sandy Hook, a company leaving a community), or Creation (an oil spill, deforestation, strip mining). Wherever there is a disruption to the peaceful flow of the Holy Spirit, tapping prayer can be applied. When I first learned about the Emotional Freedom Technique as a tool to help veterans in our community, I thought it was weird. The tapping. The repetition. It seemed odd. This was not how I understood healing from trauma to work, and yet it worked. Clearly, my Western roots were showing. When I got home from the training I began using the technique with members of my community and saw such dramatic results I had to learn more. They also found it strange, but effective. Some folks were uncomfortable with the language of "energies" and "chi," so I experimented a bit and added more traditional faith language to the mix. I dug deeply into my own faith traditions and discovered a theology of healing that accompanied tapping prayer. I found that by invoking God's presence into the act of tapping, people from varying faith experiences were able to connect to the Holy on a deeper level. They began to experience God as very real and very present in their lives. They asked to learn more about this new way of praying. They discovered that by using tapping prayer on a wide variety of issues, their relationship with God grew deeper. If you are ready to draw closer to God's healing love for you, please take responsibility for your participation in tapping prayer, and let's pray! --Todd Farnsworth

A Guidebook to Prayer

Most persons will say, "I'm not designed to pray like most people." Or persons will say, "Will you pray for me because I know you can get a prayer through." When prayer, all along has been a form of communicating with God, was created for everyone. Our Father God has often said, throughout the Bible, "seek Me," "call unto Me," or "draw nigh unto Me." Those words were invitation to everyone. In this book, the Believer will be exhorted to pray with much intercession. Their faith will be encouraged through the life of Rahab, a harlot of Jericho who lived among the lowliest of the walls of the city. She lived along the Dung gate. Rahab was one who had no destined right to the God of Israel; however, because of her faith she bypassed a call of prayer and went into action by interceding between her nation and the nation of Israel. How did she do that? She hid two of Israel's spies and that act of intercession saved her bloodline from destruction! Whether the Believer sees themselves as the lowliest person along the wall, as Rahab may have, or at the highest point on the wall, they will be encouraged in this reading. Encouraged to stay ALONG and strengthened ON THE WALL to watch over the prayers that will save a generation unto a legacy of salvation! I believe, as you read this book, you will: 1) believe GOD'S WORD; 2) stand on a firm foundation, the WORD, 3) see the salvation of others from a life of destruction; 4) use GOD'S WORD as a counteractive to the enemy's tactics; 5) be confident in the Holy Spirit's activity in your life as you yield to Him; and 5) see the glory of God's work in your life! You will find yourself actively participating in direct communication with God as you actively intercede! Glory! As you turn the pages, my prayer is that you MOVE along the wall of your family, in an alert fashion, as you pray and intercede in conjunction with our Heavenly Father's invitation. You'll know, without a shadow of doubt, it is HIM Who has drawn you into a lifetime of communication with HIM: prayer. I believe as we do such, we will truly live out the Word of God that declares in 2 Chronicles 7:14, "if My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked
